THIS WEEK WE CELEBRATE

The 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The seed that fell on good soil produced a hundredfold.

Liturgical Readings

1) Isaiah 55:10-11 My word will succeed in the thing for which I send it.
2) Romans 8:18-23 We will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God.
3) Matthew 13:1-23 The sower went out to sow the seeds of the Kingdom of God.

FOCUS: Lord, plant your word in our hearts.

The images of the seed and God's word run through the readings today. God is both sower and seed. He provides water and light and brings growth. As we contemplate this image of a seed bursting into life, let us pause and ask the Holy Spirit to help us be open to how God is working in us, providing us the grace we need to bear abundant fruit for him.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

The prophet Isaiah likens God's word to rain and snow, coming from God and achieving his purpose. In the epistle, Paul encourages the Romans to endure present suffering, anticipating God's glory and our redemption. In the Gospel from Matthew, Jesus tells the parable of the sower, explaining that the seed represents those who hear the Gospel.

VOCATION CORNER

Let anyone with ears listen! Do you hear God's call for you in your life? Have you considered the way of loving called "priesthood", "diaconate" or "religious life"? If God is calling you contact, contact:

ST ANNE NOVENA

In preparation for the liturgical feast of our Patroness, St Anne, we will begin the Novena in her honour everyday after Mass, beginning Friday, July 17. If you are unable to attend Mass, we invite you to pray the Novena from your home, to prepare your heart for her feast on July 26. St Anne is a powerful intercessor, especially for families and loved ones.

O Saint Anne, you had the joy of carrying in your womb the Immaculate Daughter, the woman chosen by God as the cradle of the Mystery: your motherhood was the crossroads of Salvation.

O Saint Anne, may your intercession, unite with that of Mary, your Daughter, to obtain the gift of seeing the Creator's smile in the eyes of every man and woman and to feel the blessing of the Eternal.

O Saint Anne, gather the supplication of all women, the expectation of wives, the hope of mothers and, together with Mary, deliver to Jesus the invocation of a new Pentecost to rediscover divine love in human love.

Saint Anne, blessed wife, mother and grandmother, pray for us, pray for our parish and for all the families of the world! Amen.

ST ANNE FEAST DAY JULY 26

We will celebrate our patron Saint, Saint Anne, as well as St Joachim, her husband, on Sunday, July 26, and after Mass, we invite everyone to come down to the hall for coffee and fellowship. The fourth Sunday in July is also World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. Pope Leo XIV has chosen "I will never forget you" (Isaiah 49:15) as the theme. Taken from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah, the chosen verse is meant to be a message of consolation and hope for all grandparents and elderly people, especially those who live in loneliness or feel forgotten. At the same time, it is a reminder to families and ecclesial communities not to forget them, recognizing in them a precious presence and a blessing. We hope that all within our parish community will invite their families to join us for Mass, and afterwards, in the hall.

St Anne Parish is entrusted to the pastoral care of the Comboni Missionaries of the Heart of Jesus.
519-744-4680 / combonimissionaries.org

For 150 years, the Comboni Missionaries have traveled to nearly every corner of the world, sharing the good news of Christ and working to protect the dignity of all people. Founded in 1867 by St. Daniel Comboni, the Comboni Missionaries are an international Catholic organization dedicated to ministering to the world's poorest and most marginalized people, often working in unstable political climates amid extreme poverty. Despite these challenges, our missionaries are dedicated to their mission of serving God's people.
