Triduum of Preparation for the Feast

First day

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen

O glorious and blessed Saint Anne, prostrate before your image, we remember the sublime virtues you practiced in your life, which attracted the gaze and favor of the Lord.
He rewarded you by choosing you as the mother of her who was to become His Mother and Queen of the Universe.
By the incomparable merits you acquired with your patience and humility, with your resignation and trust in the designs of divine providence, now turn your gaze upon us and hear our prayers.
We fervently desire that our days may be filled with the grace of God, in His will! and that we do nothing against the justice and charity of His designs. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be.

Second Day

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

O glorious and blessed Saint Anne, prostrate before your image, we remember the sublime honor to which you were raised when the Lord decreed that you would become the mother of her in whose womb the divine Word would become incarnate.
We know that Mary loved you with the affection of the holiest daughter ever to appear on earth.
We now turn to you, that you may present it to the Most Holy Virgin.
She is our Mother and Queen, the one who, after God, is our hope, to whom we look with confidence with the eagerness and enthusiasm of children who know the greatness, power, and goodness of their Mother.
Instill in our hearts an ever more ardent love for Jesus and Mary, so that, living as true Christians, we may be worthy of ascending one day to the glory of heaven. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be.

Third Day

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

O glorious and blessed Saint Anne, prostrate before your image, we remember your name, honored throughout the world. How many churches, chapels, and altars are dedicated to you! How much devotion is stirred in the hearts of the faithful for you! How many appeals to your maternal protection, how many vows of mothers and wives, how many promises of daughters, how much gratitude of parents! Your name is united with that of your holy husband Joachim, but especially with that of Mary, the greatest and most beautiful woman, the most good and merciful, the most holy and pleasing to God of all created by Him.
And as you, in your last days, were assisted by your own Daughter, pray that this assistance may also be granted to us. May you yourself, together with your husband, Jesus, Mary, and Saint Joseph, be close to your faithful in their passage from earth to heaven. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be.

On the feast day

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

O glorious and blessed Saint Anne, prostrate before your image, all of us, your faithful devotees, implore your powerful patronage.
The countless hosts who turn to you assure us of the benefit of raising our thoughts and hearts to you, and of the care you show for those who place their trust in your protection. Once again, we desire that you be glorified by all people, venerated and loved.
Teach us to be true Christians, to live a life that merits the light of heaven, after having passed through the crucible of tribulation in this world of darkness and misery. May we learn to experience joy in sanctified suffering together with Jesus and Mary, so that God may grant us an eternal share in his bliss in heaven. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be.
