THIS WEEK WE CELEBRATE

The 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Lord sustains my soul.
I have God for my help.

Liturgical Readings

1) Wisdom 12:13, 16-19 O Lord, you have filled your children with good hope.
2) Romans 8:26-27 The Spirit helps us in our weakness.
3) Matthew 13:24-43 The righteous will shine like the sun in the Kingdom of their Father.

FOCUS: The Lord is kind and forgiving to all who call upon his name.

Today's readings speak of our merciful and patient God – one who teaches the just that they must be kind. Let us place ourselves in the field of the Gospel. Although we strive to be the wheat, growing in faith and loving others, the weeds of sin and temptation grow alongside us. Let us always remember that the master sower is kind and merciful, and we must turn to him in repentance.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

The author of Wisdom declares that our all-powerful God is lenient and allows repentance for [their] sins. In the second reading, Paul says that the Spirit who dwells within us makes all our deepest longings known to God. In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the weeds among the wheat.

VOCATION CORNER

"The Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought..." For five minutes today rest with Jesus and ask Him what He requires of you. If God is calling you, to the priesthood, diaconate, or consecrated life, contact:

O Saint Anne, you had the joy of carrying in your womb the Immaculate Daughter, the woman chosen by God as the cradle of the Mystery: your motherhood was the crossroads of Salvation.

O Saint Anne, may your intercession, unite with that of Mary, your Daughter, to obtain the gift of seeing the Creator's smile in the eyes of every man and woman and to feel the blessing of the Eternal.

O Saint Anne, gather the supplication of all women, the expectation of wives, the hope of mothers and, together with Mary, deliver to Jesus the invocation of a new Pentecost to rediscover divine love in human love.

Saint Anne, blessed wife, mother and grandmother, pray for us, pray for our parish and for all the families of the world! Amen.

ST ANNE FEAST DAY JULY 26

We will celebrate our patron Saint, Saint Anne, as well as St Joachim, her husband, on Sunday, July 26, and after Mass, we invite everyone to come down to the hall for coffee and fellowship. The fourth Sunday in July is also World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. Pope Leo XIV has chosen "I will never forget you" (Isaiah 49:15) as the theme. Taken from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah, the chosen verse is meant to be a message of consolation and hope for all grandparents and elderly people, especially those who live in loneliness or feel forgotten. At the same time, it is a reminder to families and ecclesial communities not to forget them, recognizing in them a precious presence and a blessing. We hope that all within our parish community will invite their families to join us for Mass, and afterwards, in the hall.

St Anne Parish is entrusted to the pastoral care of the Comboni Missionaries of the Heart of Jesus.
519-744-4680 / combonimissionaries.org

For 150 years, the Comboni Missionaries have traveled to nearly every corner of the world, sharing the good news of Christ and working to protect the dignity of all people. Founded in 1867 by St. Daniel Comboni, the Comboni Missionaries are an international Catholic organization dedicated to ministering to the world's poorest and most marginalized people, often working in unstable political climates amid extreme poverty. Despite these challenges, our missionaries are dedicated to their mission of serving God's people.
