PASTOR'S MESSAGEJubilee... A Time of Grace

- it's time to thank God for the family of St Anne's for creating an ambience to be at peace with oneself and with God and our brothers and sisters and thus creating a family of faithful disciples.
- for St Anne's being a welcoming community specially for those immigrated and for those living on their own, a font of solace and joy.
- for filling us with the grace of God, with the gifts of the Holy Spirit, for the Sacraments that has accompanied our lives.
- for the faith that sustained us during the struggles and challenges of life.
- for the gift of family and friends who were nourished from the table and strengthened by his words.
- it's time to thank God for the Pastors who have led us from cradle to grave...christening our children, anointing and being at the side of the death bed, walking with us to the grave, bidding farewell our beloved. Being an inspiration and consolation.
- thank God for all our deceased parishioners who have gone before us, who has worked hard to sow the seed of faith in our hearts and in our parish communities.
- for all the volunteer council and committee members who have given their time, talent, and being truthful to Christ and his Church.
- thank God for the different ministries and ministers who have served to enhance faith and fellowship.
- for walking with us for the last 70 years.

Glory and Praise to our God
May our Patroness Good St Anne continue to bless us.

I wish you all a Happy Jubilee

In Jesus Joy Incarnate
